 Please note: ESL dates and times have still to be finalized. Please contact Daniel Mckinley (604-584-1607) for further details.

* Please note: We kindly request that if at all possible you refrain from the use of perfumes while at the chapel, for the sake of some who suffer from severe allergies and asthma. Many perfumes can aggravate their condition, making it difficult for them to attend the meetings. Please direct any concerns or questions to the elders of the Assembly. Thank you.

Thoughts for the Quiet Hour:

"And when they could not come nigh unto Him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay." Mark 2:4

Faith finds a way. The house was full, a crowd blocked the door, but faith found a way of getting near the Lord and placing the palsied man before Him. If we cannot get sinners where Jesus is by ordinary methods, we must use extraordinary ones. It seems, according to Luke 5:19, that a tiling had to be removed, which would make dust and cause a measure of danger to those below, but where the case is very urgent we are willing to run some risks and shock some traditional mannerism. Jesus was there to heal, and therefore fall what might, faith risked all so that her poor paralyzed charge might find peace through forgiveness. O that we had more daring faith among us! Cannot we, dear reader, seek it this morning for ourselves and for our fellow-workers, and will we not try today to perform some gallant act for the love of souls and the glory of the Lord.

The world is constantly inventing; genius serves all the purposes of human desire: cannot faith devise no means also; to reach the outcasts who lie perishing around us? It was the presence of Jesus which excited victorious courage in the four bearers of the palsied man: is not the Lord among us now? Have we felt His healing power in our own souls? If so, then through door, or through the roof, let us overcome all impediments to bring those in need to Jesus. All means are good and decorous when faith and love are truly set on winning souls. "O Lord, make us quick to suggest ways of reaching those in need of Thee, and bold to carry them through." - adapted from Morning and Evening by C.H Spurgeon

Welcome to Tenth Avenue Bible Chapel. We are glad you joined us today. We are a simple group of believers who meet for Worship, Bible Study, Fellowship, Prayer and Evangelism. You will find our services are without ceremony or ornamentation, and conducted in an atmosphere of sincerity and quiet reverence, conducive to true worship. We trust you find your time with us a blessing. If you have any prayer requests or questions, please let us know.

We Believe:

- ✓ The Bible is the inspired “Word” of God, our final authority in matters of faith and conduct. II Timothy 3:16-17
- ✓ There is one God, revealing himself in three Persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Hebrews 9:14; Matthew 28:19
- ✓ In the essential deity and true humanity of Jesus Christ our Lord, who was born of the virgin Mary, lived a sinless life, died upon the cross, rose from the dead, ascended to heaven, and will soon return in person. Philippians 2:6-11; I Thessalonians 4:16
- ✓ Man is sinful by nature and practice but through grace can be restored to fellowship with God. Romans 3:23; Ephesians 2:8-9
- ✓ The only way for man to be right with God is through faith in Christ alone, whose death and resurrection were for our redemption. Romans 10:8-10
- ✓ There is one true Church under the sole authority of Christ, comprised of all believers in the Lord Jesus Christ, and recognized neither ecclesiastical nor sectarian barriers, Ephesians 1:19-23; Galatians 3:28
- ✓ In the Christian ordinances: believer’s baptism by immersion and the Lord’s Supper. Matthew 28:19; Luke 22:19-20
